WE PAUSE...

in the work of the day
as we dedicate this 1942 Cardinal to our Democracy . . . and to those who sacrifice so much that we may continue to enjoy the Blessings of Freedom . . .

and this is Coldwater High School—A Democracy within Democracy—where we learn from our instructors, form lasting friendships, take a part in activities and prepare ourselves for a useful and an interesting life . . .

Miss Gertrude S. Moore

IN APPRECIATION.....

*Gertrude
moore*

Miss Gertrude Moore is a true and loyal citizen of our democracy here at C. H. S. She has been a superior teacher of languages and literature, but more than that, she has been a powerful influence in teaching her pupils to aspire to their greatest heights. The goal of every individual should be the best that he can achieve.

We here express our appreciation for her excellent instruction, her cheerful and friendly manner, and her loyalty to the ideals of all true Cardinals.

We express our appreciation to our teachers and administrators for instructing and guiding us in the basic principles of democracy which are found in Coldwater High School.

Can You Imagine?

MR. ARMBRUSTER, known as "Dutch", being a buck private? Anyway, we wish he could stay here with us. Maybe if Fate plays its part, we'll be seeing you around another year. More power to you, "Dutch".

MR. BATES not saying at the beginning of each school year, "Now, let's have your undivided attention, and this is going to be the best Junior High School we've had?"

MISS BARSHNEY remaining in Coldwater High School the rest of her life? Neither can we.

Coldwater High School without MISS BEHRENTS and her sweet music?

MR. BOND touring the country with a name band? Blue-Grass Bond and His Kentucky Colonels . . . some corn.

MISS BURRELL saying something with her hands tied? And getting through a complete hour without mentioning that back row.

MISS CHUTE as a ballet dancer? And saying at the beginning of class "Girls who were absent need not present excuses."

MR. CLUTE as a stand in for Caesar Romero? And not giving a darn who you went out with last night. And wearing a black tie.

MR. DENNIS with a new line of jokes? And a sour look on his face all day.

MR. ELLIOTT without his morning chat with one of three women teachers? Or with the classroom door closed. And urging the students not to take part in the discussion.

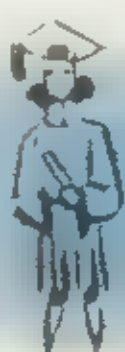

MR. FRIZZO as a burly grotesque gangster? Or saying in the morning, "Here are a bunch of excuses, kids. "Take as many as you want."

MR. GREEN a sweet, old fuzzy-headed orchestra leader? And saying, "Mathematics will have no value for you in later life."

MR. GREGG with a goatee and a French accent doing portraits?

MR. GRIGG running a Red Cross Knitting Unit instead of welding classes?

MR. KLINE six feet tall with a black mustache and still being the boss of Junior High study hall?

More of the "Same old Stuff"

MISS LAZENBY saying "Children, you can make all the noise you want to?"

MRS. MacFARLANE not having a finger in every pie baked in Coldwater High School? And not losing something

MRS. McMICHAEL not knowing a note of music?

MR. NELSON as the girl's gym instructor and not possessing that great physique?

MISS MOORE playing boogie woogie records instead of Shakespeare's MacBeth?

MISS PERRYMAN creating a beauty parlor during her play practices? Everyone experiments, but, oh, what a jolt!

MR. RENSHAW as a professor? From what we've heard of history, he'd be a good one.

MISS SCHULTZ not being the belle of Junior High School? Just enough work, more play, makes the kids like you. Yes-sir-eee!

MISS SEMMELROTH riding a bicycle built for two along with Miss Perryman? And not insisting that you prepare your lessons.

MR. SIBLEY as a college student not knowing his physics and chemistry? Or saying, "Let's keep the lab quiet, please."

MISS STEFFANIAK not being able to speak because she was tongue-tied?

MISS SWANSON as a tall, slender, frizzy blond? Or as women's bowling champ of the U. S.

MRS. VAN AKEN with a soft, southern drawl? And saying, "I suggest that you read only Westerns and Detectives. I do."

MR. WEEKS without a sense of humor? Or without an office full of students with many and varied problems.

MISS WELLINGTON as a hardened business woman? She'll have to grow a little.

Or can you imagine the whole faculty running a summer dance hall and roller skating rink?

Or can you imagine the students of our high school not agreeing that this faculty is the best in the state. Yes, we mean it. So long till September.

Class of 1942

In September 1939 this class entered senior high school as 145 not too confident sophomores. They were soon put at ease by the seniors at an exciting Sophomore Reception. Wishing to show their appreciation, they sponsored a bang-up Christmas Party for the whole school.

Feeling far more at ease in their Junior year, they gave as their Junior Play, "The Vampire Bat" from which they derived more profit than from any play given up to that time. Aided by this financial help, they put on one of the best Junior-Senior Banquets ever given.

Their Senior year proved to be the most exciting and different experience they had enjoyed. The class chose Wayne Green as president. With the help of the other officers plans were soon made for their Sophomore Reception. This function was the first of a long list of senior successes. The Senior Play went over the top on a par with the one given the previous year. Shooting at a high goal the Class of '42 chose as their Class Memorial, curtains for the windows and stage of the auditorium. They secured the cooperation of the Board of Education and sponsored a benefit movie to raise the funds necessary in addition to the already fine class treasury balance. Scoring again under the direction of their fine officers and their advisers, Miss Wellington and Mr. Renshaw, the class was acclaimed at the Diamond Jubilee Commencement for their fine gift.

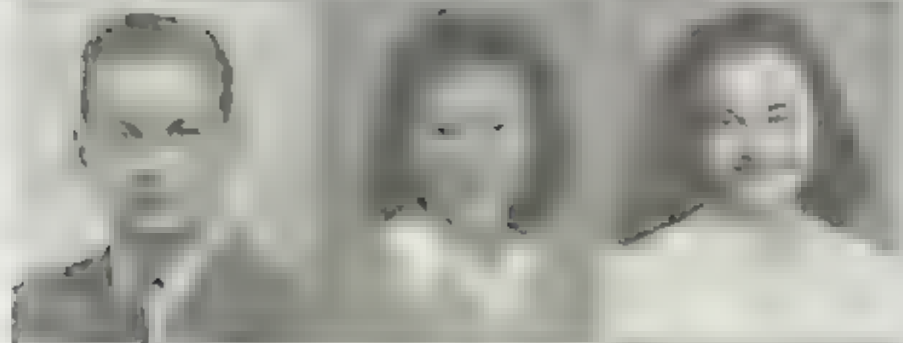

It might also be mentioned that this was the largest class to graduate to this date. This class won honors both in quality and quantity. We are going to miss the Class of 1942. Good luck, seniors!

The Junior Class

Not to be outdone by the previous junior class and the up-and-coming sophomore class, the Juniors displayed their musical talent through the one and only Paul Shank band. This included Dean Forester, Charlie Raymond, Clare Wise, George Hackett, Dick Corey, Jim Thomas, and Barbara Payne.

As the year wore on, they presented on March 24, a comedy, "Don't Take My Penny", the proceeds of which partially financed the Junior-Senior Banquet in the spring, bringing their Junior year to a successful close with this banquet as the climax.

The class of 43 chose as their officers, Charles Dinnella, President; Dean Forester, Vice President; Guinevere Weaver, Secretary; and Erma Van Kampen, Treasurer.

Clare Wise was elected to represent the class of 123 students on the commission while Edna Lytle was chosen clerk.

Miss June Perryman and Mr. Jack C. Elliott served as faculty advisers for the class of '43.

The Sophomore Class

The Sophomores certainly adjusted themselves quickly to their environment for they took to Senior High like "ducks take to water." After being welcomed by the Sophomore Reception, they went back with a grand Mid-Winter Frolic such as you've never seen before. Along with dancing games and a movie for entertainment, they had to make the most of the night with the "Gift for Gay". Colleen Hascher. Not being satisfied with one outstanding achievement, they displayed their unity again by sponsoring the Friday nite dances in the gym.

The class of '44 chose as their officers, Bill Cooper, President; Bill Newberry, Vice President; Polly Walker, Secretary, and Jerry Fair, Treasurer.

Jerry Smith was the representative of this large class of 140 students on the commission. Acting as advisers were Bertrand Sibley and Dorothy Burrell.

The Mirror - News Hounds

Here is the hardworking staff that turned out the "Mirror" every two weeks for the past year. Getting news, news, and more news that was their job. And their aim was to put out a lively, up-to-date, and informative school newspaper.

The staff continued to publish the larger, more readable "Mirror" which was introduced the year before. Also, a "Mirror" contribution box was set up in the study hall, toward which the students were urged to contribute. The Mirror this year truly reflected the spirit of C. H. S.

STUDENT COMMISSION

Government of the students, by the students, and for the students! This year's Student Commission was composed of Mayor Bob Browne, Clerk Edna Lytle, Senior Commissioner Dick Carr, Junior Commissioner Clare Wise, and Sophomore Commissioner Jerry Smith.

Credit for many improvements around school goes to this student-elected organization. To heighten interest in sports events they broadcast football games at the field, printed the Sturgis football game program, and gave out basketball schedule cards.

The Commission sponsored after-game dances, and decorated the school building for Christmas. A resolution was passed providing that Commission members should receive awards. A popularity contest was held in March, and an exchange assembly and Sadie Hawkins week were promoted in the spring.

The heads of committees were as follows: Assembly Committee, Edna Lytle; Social Committee, Dick Carr; Citizenship Committee, Clare Wise; Athletic Committee, Jerry Smith.

"Resolved: That every able bodied male citizen of the United States be required to have one year of full time military training before attaining the present draft age."

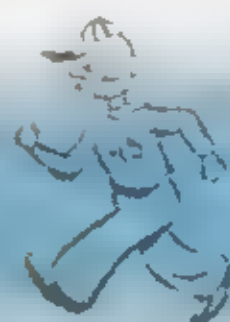

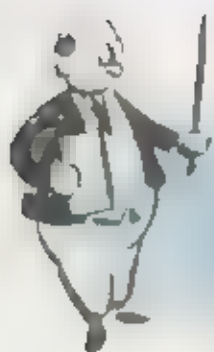

This debate question was supported this year on the affirmative by Tom Wright, Margaret Gould, and Sperry Wilcox while the negative side was presented by Wayne Green, Mable Jones, and Mary Margaret Butler, who alternated with Dick Milliman.

Coached by Miss Perryman our debaters held their own in both of the Twin Valley Forecasts as well as the District and being one of the four to meet on December 12, and also the one on January 6. Both were held at Michigan State College at East Lansing.

Besides this, two practice debates were held with each of the Twin Valley Conference cities, and also with Quincy.

In the spring contests we were represented in Oratory by Tom Wright and Arthur Lewis in Extemporaneous Speaking by Wayne Green in Declamation by Dick Milliman; and in Dramatic Declamation by Margaret Gould.

We won third place in Twin Valley Speech activities for the year. Arthur Lewis won the District Contest with his oration.

The Senior Play "Brings Down the House"

On November 14, the Senior Class presented their annual play in Roosevelt Auditorium. The class picked a comedy called "Cross My Heart" by McRea and Savage. The plot of the play was centered around two problem children who found a way to bring their parents around to their way of thinking. Of course there were a lot of people in the neighborhood to come in and out to make matters worse, but by the end of the play everything came out all right.

Bill Engle, Babs Parker, Phyllis Johnson, Dick Merriman, Bert Sibley, Betty Loewe, John Barber, Madeliene Jones, James Thomas, Norma Jean Brown, Dick

Carr, Daisy McMillin, and Martha Treat did a fine job of acting in this play. The play was directed by Miss June Peetyman and several students who cooperated with her. The High School orchestra furnished music between acts.

Junior Class Play

"Rolls 'em in the aisles"

The proceeds of the play were used to partially finance the Junior-Senior Banquet.

This play had the largest attendance record of any play in recent years. We are expecting a great play from the Class of '43.

"Don't Take My Penny," a three-act comedy by Anne Coulter Martens, was presented by the junior class on Tuesday March 27th, in the Roosevelt Auditorium. With a large cast of eight boys and nine girls, this play offered many more opportunities for students to participate. The plot revolves around a group of boys who resort to all sorts of trickery to prevent the girls from getting in the movies. The cast included:

Sally (Maid) _____
 Norman (Porter) _____
 Penny (Pretty miss) _____ Phyllis Cole

"HI-Y"

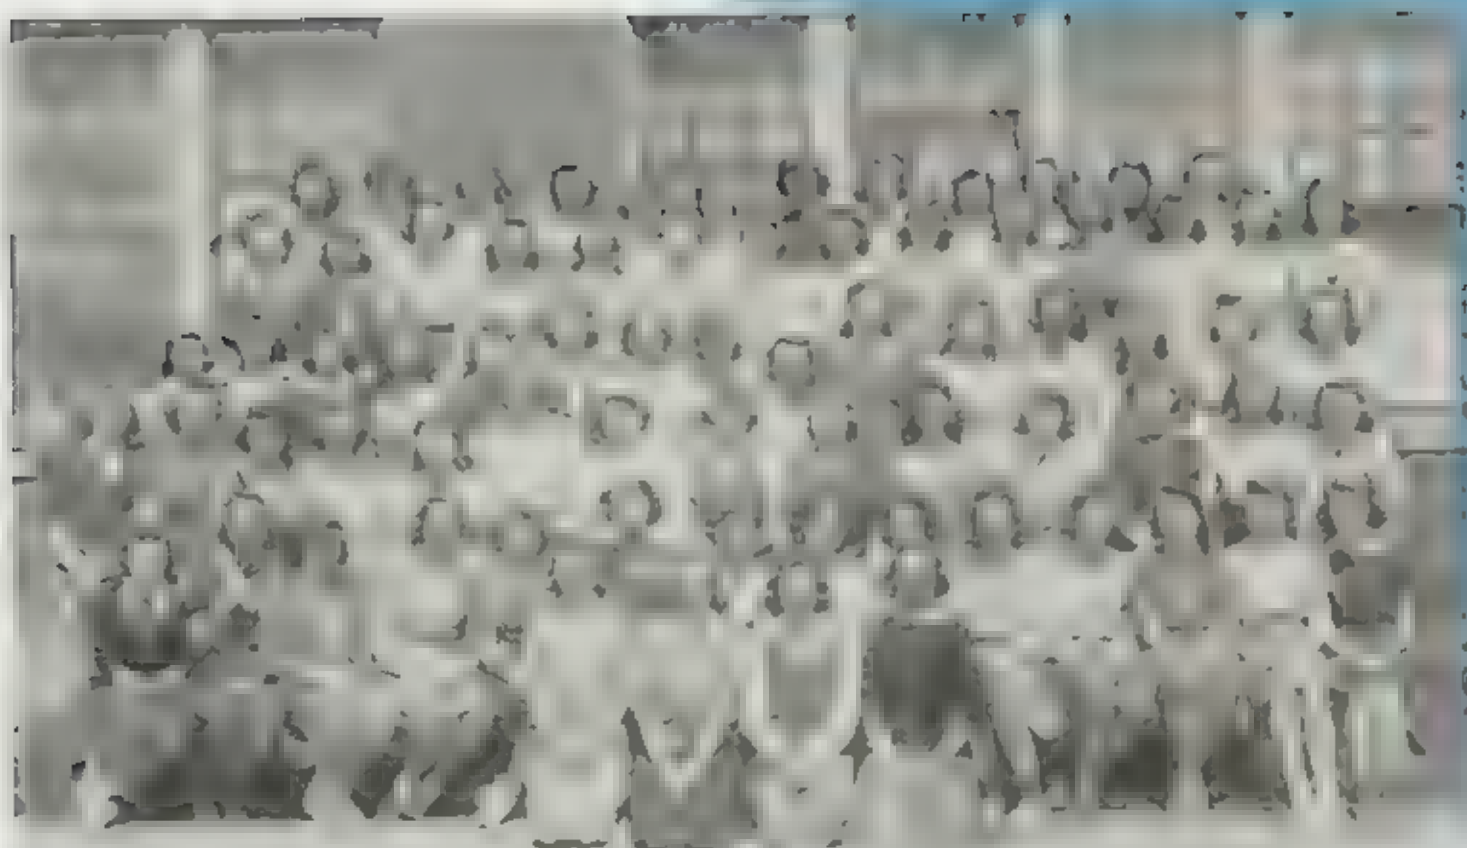

This year's line up was "Deac" Pascoe President; Dick Carr, Vice President; Don H..., Secretary; Bert Sibley Jr., Treasurer; Mr. Jack Elliott, adviser.

Among our group we had the President of this Hi-Y District which includes six counties. He was elected at the district meeting last spring to represent our district at State meetings, and that appointment made him President of the District Hi-Y Council. This lad was none other than Dick Carr.

Some of us attended the Older Boys' Conference at Highland Park in November.

The Hi-Y and the Girl Reserves had two roller skating parties at Coldwater Lake, and did we ever have fun! The Hi-Y sponsored dances on Friday nights. The big thing that happened this year was that our Hi-Y Department celebrated its twenty first anniversary. A Hi-Y Club at Coldwater High School, Mr. Good, who was the first adviser, was speaker for the evening.

GIRL RESERVES

Combining service with pleasure—that's what the Girl Reserves have been doing the past year. Headed by capable officers President Norma Jean Brown, Vice President Evelyn Morgan, Secretary Edna Lytle, and Treasurer Babs Parker, they carried out a variety of activities.

A number of Christmas boxes were given out, and some of the members knitted for the Red Cross every Monday afternoon.

The Coldwater Girl Reserves acted as hostesses to Girl Reserve clubs from Hilsboro, Quincy, Rice, Lonsdale, Littleton, and Alton during the District Conference held here November 8 and 9. Two delegates, Norma Jean Brown and Edna Lytle, were sent to the State Conference at Jackson February 13, 14, and 15.

On the social side, the Girl Reserves enjoyed picnics, skating parties, a Christmas party, and several dances with the Hi-Y.

V . . . Victory Council

In order that Coldwater High School could do its part in the war effort, the war council was set up in February. Each social science class elected a delegate, thus forming a group of fourteen students who with Mr. Weeks, co-ordinator, Mr. Elliott, and Mr. Renshaw, formed the council.

Having elected Eugene Pascoe as chairman, the council swung into action almost immediately. They assumed the responsibility of collecting paper, rags and old metal until the end of the school year, amassing a total of 75 tons of paper and 12 tons of old metal, thus the salvage committee did their bit toward the national effort.

The war savings committee starting stamp sales on Monday morning only, soon adopted the procedure of selling every day. Thus, this committee was able to report a sale of more than $300 by the termination of the school year.

Under their chairman, Jim Thomas, the Victory Book Campaign, held a "book" day. Each student was requested to bring a book to pass on to the armed services. A large number of books was added to the county's quota as a result.

Another successful committee of the council was the letters to the Service committee with Elizabeth Wert at the head. Their function was to collect addresses of the many alumni in the armed services, promote correspondence with them, and send them the school paper.

A co-ordinating committee known as the publicity committee had Guinevere Weaver as chairman, assisting in the promoting of many activities. Thus C. H. S. has done her part for democracy in 1942.

"C" CLUB

The officers this year were: Corwin Zinn, President; Dick Asbury, Vice President; John Woodward, Secretary; Kenny Wagar, Treasurer; and Mr. Nelson was the faculty adviser.

After the Armistice Day Victory in Football over Sturgis, the "C" Club and the Football Squad were entertained by the Rotary Club at their annual Football Banquet. All the boys had a "big feed" and after dinner there were speeches and a movie of the Michigan and Ohio State Football Game.

For several weeks on Saturday the boys collected paper, with help of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, to earn money to buy new football uniforms for the next four years. The proceeds from this conservation campaign made a 50 per cent contribution to the High School Athletic Association for complete new uniforms for three full teams.

All boys who win a Varsity Letter are eligible to become members of this club. This group has been a part of C. H. S. for many years and consequently has many alumni members. The past year has been an especially active year because of the spirit of the President Zinn and faculty adviser Coach Nelson. With a good group of underclassmen left, the club should make an even finer record next year.

TOMORROW'S TILLERS

The cabinet of the F. F. A. club was composed of Wilford Loose, President; Bob Loose, Vice President; Art Mohr, Secretary; Don Barnes, Treasurer, and Bill Engle, Reporter. The new, and most popular teacher, Mr. Armbruster, was their adviser.

The F. F. A. did a lot of things this year. They attended Farmers Week at Lansing; all the Home Economics and F. F. A. Clubs of Branch County had a big party at Union City. They also had a County Speaking Contest in which Wilford Loose won second, and Duane AcMoody won third place.

The Coldwater F. F. A. Club had a basketball team, and out of seven games they won three. They say that they will have a better team next year. We're betting on them.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club feels that it has really accomplished a great deal since it was first organized three years ago with the Junior and Senior High clubs separately. Uniting in 1941 the election of officers opened the year with Guinevere Weaver acting as President; Donna Lint as Vice President; Annette Branch as recording secretary; Doris Johnson as corresponding secretary; and Mary Margaret Butler as treasurer.

Organizing with about 50 members, it adopted a constitution, a point system for earning pins, and affiliated with the state and national clubs.

Among the outstanding things accomplished are: Sponsored Halloween Barn Dance, held a dignified formal initiation, helped with Cafeteria for 95 people, contributed toys to Kiwanis for Xmas party for poor children, went caroling out to County Infirmary with gifts of candy and cookies for inmates, established a placement bureau, sent the President and Doris Johnson to the state convention as delegates, bought a "Betty Lamp" for the Home Economics room, held a Father-Daughter Banquet a sandwich, popcorn and drink social, state assembly book. With this record for the year it was certainly kept busy most of the time. It hopes for an even better one next year.

Junior High Student Council and Mirror Staff

Beginning the school year by organizing study hall supervision, hall order, and school ground order, the student council proceeded through the year planning assemblies, parties and the school picnic. For the first time, the council sponsored dancing classes for those who wished to learn to dance and provided matinee dances every Tuesday and Thursday.

The Junior High School news in the Mirror was capably handled during this year by the staff pictured above. They scoured the Lincoln building each week for bits of news which would be of interest to the four hundred junior high students every other Friday. We are sure that these students will make good material for future Mirror staffs.

The Orchestra "Stringing Along"

The concert orchestra has served faithfully this year by playing school plays, the operetta, The Players and Band Parent parties. They won first division honors at the District Festival held in Kalamazoo on April 11. The year is done but "their melody lingers on."

VARSITY BAND "And the Band Played On!"

It's democratic! The high school band elects regular officers who govern the activities of that organization for the year. They also have hostesses and a student adviser. These officers have done a splendid job this year.

The band has worked hard. Early morning practices, evening practices and Saturday practices have made a playing and marching organization of which our high school is justly proud.

Our high school band plays an important part in the life of C. H. S. During the football season, every game has a between-the-halves performance of snappy music and new marching formations.

During the basketball season, the band divides in half for each game. Sparkling music, novelty acts and fancy twirling do much to make the games more lively.

Throughout the year, the music department plans toward the spring festivals which come in April. This year saw our marching band bring home a well deserved first division rating in the state contest.

Much of the credit for the success of the band goes to the untiring activity of the Band and Orchestra Parents organization, which helps raise funds for trips and awards, and lends a lot of moral support to the music department.

In addition to these regular activities, the band serves the community during the year by playing at fairs in parades, for community meetings, and business promotion programs. Around school, the band offers an annual concert of very fine quality. And they cooperate in all school activities. Many assemblies throughout the year make use of the entire band or some of its members.

So for all these favors, we say, "Hats off to the Band."

SENIOR HIGH CHORUS

If you were to wander into the halls of C. H. S. during the first and third hours you would hear all kinds of music floating from the auditorium, and if you should happen to go into the auditorium you would see Miss Carol Behrents directing the boys and girls. Yes she's our chorus director.

For the first time the chorus had a party, and it was such a success they had another.

The chorus worked hard this year to put on the following programs: an assembly, a program for the parents, Christmas program, Christmas caroling, Fortnightly Music in the Home and Community Program Operetta, and the Twin Valley Music Festival which was held March 25, in Albion. Evelyn Johnson was their pianist.

Appearing with the Glee Club this year was a senior girls' quartet known as the Four Tones. It consists of Pamela Grubbs, Wilhelmina Charles Schlatter, and Kathryn Clark, with Maxine Ellinger playing the piano for them. We thank the glee club for putting "a song in our hearts."

Recipe for Fun

There is nothing more fun than a good old-fashioned dance. It's a great way to get in shape and have a good time. Here are some tips to make your dance night a success.

1. Dress to impress. Wear your best clothes and make sure you're comfortable. 2. Don't be afraid to ask for a dance. Most people are happy to dance with you. 3. Keep a good sense of humor. Laughter is a great way to break the ice. 4. Stay hydrated. Drink plenty of water throughout the night. 5. Don't drink too much. It's easy to get carried away, but moderation is key. 6. Have a backup plan. In case of an emergency, make sure you have a way out of the venue.

OH, WHAT I SEE

On the field of contest
Coldwater High School
ranks high in sportsmanship. The principle of being a good loser as well as a good winner is one of the most important characteristics of a democratic people.

Football Cardinals

Last fall the football squad reported to Waterworks park sixty-five strong to welcome their new coach and former All-American from the University of Illinois, Ken J. Nelson.

Finally the day of the first game rolled around and the team got off on the wrong foot against a very powerful Three Rivers eleven to take a 34-0 beating. A week later the Cards rolled out to take a 20-0 victory over the Next week the Cardinals rolled out to take a 40-0 victory over the weaker Hornets. A week later the Marshall Redskins rolled in to town to take a 25-0 decision over our Cards.

A week later we traveled to Albion and absorbed a 33-0 defeat. Next we traveled to Adrian and showed the fact that we had not lost the hard fighting spirit before being nosed out 26-22. We went to East Lansing a week later and fell 40-0 before a strong club on a day fit only for ducks.

Next came the mighty Sturgis Trojans for the annual football classic. With Dave Green leading the way, the Redbirds gave Sturgis a 18-0 drubbing.

The senior lettermen are: Harold Leedom, Jim Rowe, Bill Rzepka, Dick Asbury, Corwin Zinn, Loren Newberry, Dave Green (Captain), Gene Pascoe and Don Harris.

Senior Gridiron Greats!

The Coldwater Reserve football team started their season by traveling to Reading to play the Reading Eagles. After a hard fought first half, Coldwater came back fighting mad in the second half and drove to the two, one, and five yard line of Reading only to lose the game, 14-0.

The next week they went to Quincy and were downed to the tune of 35-0. Next they went to Sturgis and engaged the strong junior Trojans and lost a heartbreaking game, 9-0.

About two weeks later on a Saturday morning, with a very muddy field, they defeated a Battle Creek Central reserve team 7-6.

Finally on November 11, they went to Union City and took on the Maroons for their final game of the season. After a hard fought contest they were defeated by Union City, 19-7. Their record for the season was: won 1, lost 4.

There were five seniors, who played their last football for Coldwater High, on the reserve team. They were the mainstays of the line; Dick Carr, end; Carl Stansell, tackle; Bob Davis, guard; Dick Watson, center; and Dick Merriman, end. Other boys who played reserve ball were: Wigent, Dixon; Alexander; Moody; Linn; Lytle; Zinn; Jones; Morency; Wagar; Ellis; Zinner; Roby; Ferguson; Park; Mahina; Kave; and Must. Most of these boys were out for the first time but played very good football. Next year the reserves will have an experienced group to add to the varsity squad.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

BOTTOM ROW: Zambuck, Snyder, Worst, Bracker

BASKETBALL

Opening their pre-holiday season against Lakeview the C. H. S. Cardinal quintet was vanquished 26-11. Bouncing back from their early season jitters, the fighting Frizzo-men knocked over Hillsdale and Adrian with finesse.

Following the Christmas vacation, the Cardinals once more went forth to do battle for the old alma mater. Three Rivers proved a tough opponent to the tune of 46-30; the Redbirds drubbed an able Albion five 36-19 with "Howie" Snyder hanging up 17 points.

With Dave Green and Bill Engle, seniors, forming the nuclei, the hard fighting under classmen kept C. H. S. in the ball game many times. Ending up in third place, Mr. Frizzo's charges should top the conference next year.

The Coldwater Reserves, led by "Bud" Cooper, fared well this season. With no shortage of talent, the reserves should have a good deal of experience which should prove valuable next year.

RESERVES

BASEBALL BAMBINOS

This spring Coach Nelson was greeted by a host of baseball talent. Many of the boys were younger and in all, sixteen boys represented the freshman and sophomore classes.

The boys had little experience behind them, however, and dropped many close games. This year six teams composed the Twin Valley Conference. The Cards started right off on the bad luck road and lost four games in the last inning of play.

A few of the heart-breakers were: Sturgis scoring winning runs in the seventh, Lakeview 5-4 in the seventh, Marshall 4-3 in the seventh.

The future looks very bright with all the Young talent. If the boys don't find jobs in industry, as nine of them did this year, the prospects are very good.

Five seniors are playing their last games for C. H. S. They are all seeing action and making good accounts for themselves. They are: Watson, catcher; W. C. ——— pitcher and first base; D. Tappenden, outfield; Brockway, outfield; and Pascoe, pitcher and outfield.

TOP ROW: Jessup, Snyder, Woodward, Coach Weeks, Butler, Church,

TENNIS "RACKETEERS"

The '12 Tennis season opened with such veterans as Zinn, Butler, Woodward, Engle, Leedom, Snyder and Browne back and two promising prospects, Church and Papke. These netmen opened against Battle Creek Central and lost 5-2. The next week they met Lakeview and played consistent tennis to win 5-0. Next they encountered the Sturgis Trojans and lost 3-2.

On May 19 they traveled to Marshall to the Twin Valley Tournament. There determined to win, they toppled five straight opponents: Albion, Lakeview, Hillsdale, Sturgis, and Adrian, to carry home the Twin Valley Tournament Championship. After this, the Cardinal netmen finished the remaining season in fine style.

Coach Weeks did a fine job of coaching even though he had his boys play a match with water knee deep on the courts which later was called "Week's Aquacade". Five boys will graduate this year but we bet Coach Weeks will still put a good team on the courts next year.

A CERTAIN ARISTOCRAT

The family boasts a true aristocrat,
Blue ribboned, velvet gloved La Reine,
their cat
A silver-smoky Persian, copper-eyed,
Felicitous adornment for fireside.
She waves her plumed tail like a question mark
As if to punctuate the firelit dark,
Then settles down to atavistic dreams.
A ball of fur on their hearth rug. It seems
Their homage she accepts as just reward,
For beauty such as hers should be adored.
In her domain they are the vassals, she
The gracious queen who rules them purringly.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

She has considered well your offer, sir,
And she regrets to state she must defer
Decision till some later date. Perhaps
With slow time's passing your desire will lapse

She hesitates in sheer solicitude.

You know her only in her party mood—

A turquoise gown in moonlight, pink champagne,
Camelias, golden slippers, musical refrain.

O, what about her other self whom you
Have never met? To know her is your due,
Kind sir. If disillusionment sets in,
Retract your offer safely with a grin.

You might dislike her stripped of gayety,
The party garb she dons habitually.
Be warned! She's just a book-devouring mouse,
Sad inefficiency about the house.

She gives you leave, sir, to retrieve your dart
From her romantic, unresisting heart.

A MAIDEN AUNT

Reserved would be the word if you were lost
She was a quiet sort and somewhat shy.

For speech to coin her character and dignity

That quietness. And yet her hair was tossed Back from her head with quite a gypsy air,

As the hot currents surged within her breast
And longed to know some madcap love affair,

To still their turbulence and give them rest.

And I have seen her in the early dawn

With eyes upraised to where the eagles soar.

It seemed her soul took flight to be the pawn

Of winds that howl above our earthly score.

For hidden somewhere in her inner self

Were passions unexpressed, like faint perfume

That lies neglected on some hidden shelf

And wastes its fragrance on an empty room

GOLD SECRET

The moon and I have a secret

A secret you too might share.

(If you happen to have golden curls,

But NOT if you have black hair.)

The moon and I sail onward

Calmly from day to day,

She, grandly in her heavens,

And I in my homely way.

But the moon and I have a secret . . .

And nights when the winds are still

She comes to pay me a visit

Upon my gray window sill;

And both of us then remember

The secret you too might share,

How once I kissed her gold brightness

Among the gold of your hair.
